

The Maya Gold Foundation presents the

COMPASSION IN ACTION AWARD
for New Paltz High School Students

The Compassion in Action Award recognizes up to two students who have demonstrated a commitment to improving mental wellness, advancing social justice, empowering their peers, and/or strengthening community. We encourage all New Paltz High School students to review the application and apply online.

This spring we hope to recognize up to two students with a $500 award per student.

Please use the URL or QR below to complete a brief application by MARCH 1, 2024.

We encourage you to apply for yourself and share this opportunity with another teen who you think might be interested in applying.

Apply at:

<https://bit.ly/mayagoldfndnaward>

Empower youth to access their inner wisdom and realize their dreams.