Notice: You have a right to appeal a denial of this application to the Appeals Officer, 196 Main Street, New Paltz, New York 12561.

Dear Applicant,

We appreciate your taking the time to complete the application for access to records on the reverse side of this document. The information you provide helps us to locate the specific records you require.

While it is our goal to meet your request as soon as possible, please understand that depending on the nature of your request or the current work load of the Records Access Officer, we may not be able to provide immediate or same day service.

If you are able to specify clearly the document(s) you are seeking, please provide that information on the records access application form. This will enable our staff to assist you in a more timely fashion.

Please be assured that the Records Access Officer will make every effort to meet your request. However, as required by law, certain records are not available to the public. If your request cannot be met, an explanation will be provided. If you are not satisfied with that explanation, you may appeal in writing to the Appeals Officer.

Thank you for your patience and cooperation.
