Students in Mr. Woods Calligraphy are doing great work mixing a variety of lettering styles including Textura, Copperplate, and Uncial into creative expression.

BAND

On Saturday, September 30th, 24 NPHS Band Students volunteered to travel to the University at Albany to join the U Albany Marching Great Danes Band at their NCAA Division 1 home football game.

Students joined in and performed with the college band in the stands before watching the Halftime Show from the stadium concourse.

Additionally, we were thrilled to see two NPHS Graduates performing (and earning scholarship dollars) as members of the Marching Great Danes band!

NPHS Students Thornton Eis (12th), Loyal Goodermote (11th), Josh Cotter (10th) and Mia Welz (10th) participated in the recent SUNY Ulster Music Showcase as members of the College-Community Band. They performed challenging works in concert alongside other high school students, music teachers, and community members of all ages (including Mia's mom Cheryl Byron!).

The group was led by conductor Victor Izzo, Jr, (Director of Bands at SUNY Ulster) and guest conductor Sam Newsome (NPHS Band Director and Music teacher)

COLLEGE

SENIOR ANNA GOODMAN RECENTLY HAD HER WORK PUBLISHED IN TEEN INK, A DIGITAL LITERARY MAGAZINE FOR TEENAGE WRITING. HER NOVELLA "THE MYSTERIOUS THING THAT OCCURRED", STARTED AS A SHORT FICTION ASSIGNMENT FOR MS. HAYDEN'S CREATIVE WRITING COURSE. IN HER AUTHOR'S NOTE, ANNA WRITES, " I WANTED TO CREATE A STORY THAT THRIVES ON ASSUMPTION, AND ITS REVEAL DOESN'T WORK UNLESS THE AUDIENCE MAKES SEVERAL ASSUMPTIONS, BUT THEY ALWAYS WILL... WRITING THIS STORY MADE ME UNDERSTAND AND APPRECIATE THE IMPLICIT BOND BETWEEN YOUNG QUEER WOMEN, SO I'D LIKE TO DEDICATE THIS STORY TO ALL OF THEM." CONGRATULATIONS, ANNA!

The Girls Varsity Soccer team seniors celebrate a victory in their senior rec game against Rondout. Senior defenders Maggie DiDonna, Soleil Miller, and Mae Rogers stifled the Rondout offense, preserving the shutout. Senior Midfielders Riley Burdick, Melanie Kniffen and Mina Pine set up numerous scoring opportunities for the offense. Senior Forwards Avery Greger and Kalle Maseo kept the Rondout defense under pressure with Kalle securing victory with a hat-trick. Senior Addison MacDonald supported her team from the sideline, recovering from an ACL tear, constantly providing motivation for the team to have success. I am so proud of this group. It has been a wonderful experience being their coach. -Coach Walker
