Dear New Paltz High School Families,

Teachers play an invaluable role contributing to the educational and social growth of students. During National Teacher Appreciation Week (May 2–6) we offered our gratitude to our teachers for their unwavering dedication to our students. On Tuesday, teachers were treated to a bagel breakfast made possible by former NPHS graduate Connor Morabito (2011), and on Wednesday, a couple of Chefs and a Sous Chef in the main office whipped up a Mexican inspired lunch. Today, many of our teachers were recognized by students who had nominated them for Positive Vibes awards.

Happy Mothers Day!
